

Date	Speaker	Title
6 September	Prof Toby Wilkinson Clare College, Cambridge	Tutankhamun's Treasures: Life in Ancient Egypt
13 September	Prof Stephanie Moser Southampton University	The legacy of antiquity: ancient Egypt, Victorian design, and modernity
20 September	Dr Hannah Cornwell Birmingham University	The theatre of diplomacy at Rome
27 September	Nicky Everett Education Manager, The Newt in Somerset	Villa Ventorum: A Roman Villa Reimagined
4 October	Prof Dominic Perring University College, London	The end of Roman London
11 October	Anthony Adolph Independent Scholar	Caesar's Little Coin: why Aeneas's flight from burning Troy was so important to Julius and Augustus
18 October	Dr Shushma Malik Newnham College, Cambridge	Roman Emperors in Political Culture
25 October	Half Term
1 November	Half Term
8 November	Dr Virginia Campbell The Open University	Suffragette City: Women and Elections in Pompeii
15 November	Prof Llewelyn Morgan Brasenose College, Oxford	Adventures in nineteenth-century Latin and Greek: From a pharmacists' ball in Brno to a pair of mislaid spectacles in Moscow
22 November	Hugh Vinter AWBC Member	Some triumphs and failures of the Byzantine Empire
29 November	Entrance Exams
6 December	Dr Carolina Rangel de Lima The British Museum	Legion: life in the Roman Army
13 December	Gavandra Hodge The Warburg Institute	Perfecta Ingenia: how Latin learning transformed Tudor elite women